

Performance Bulletin

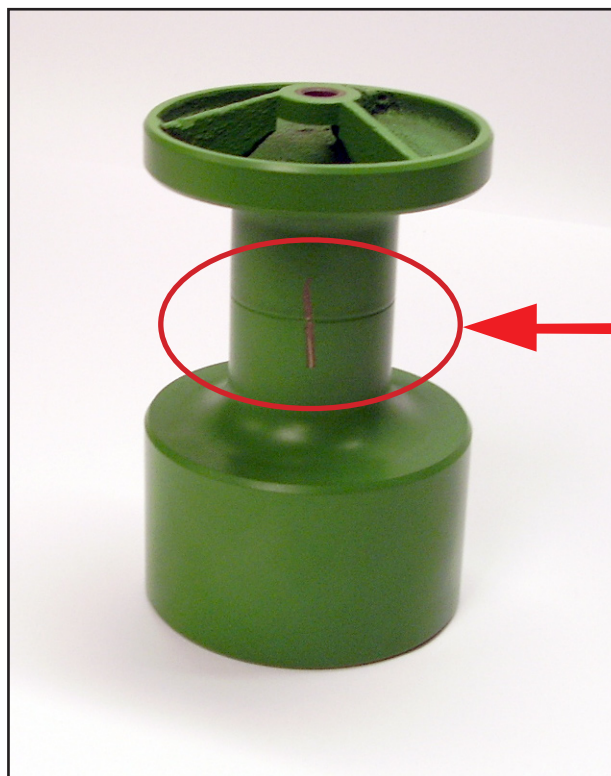

May 2007

Teflon[®] Adhesion Testing on Pistons

In order to test our pistons for Teflon[®] adhesion to the metal, a scratch test is performed. This test is performed on the valley portion of the pistons.

Please refer to the photograph below of a model 3900 lower piston.

This does not affect the sealing surface of the piston, performance, or reliability.

Scratch Test
on Valley of Piston